

Wenatchee River – Beehive

Description: The majority of the Beehive treatment area is private lands. The area receives heavy recreational use due to its proximity to Wenatchee.

Infested acres: 6.7

Total acres: 6662.88

5th Field watershed: Lake Entiat-Columbia River 1702001003

Major Streams and Waterbodies: Columbia River

Elevation: 1400-6700

Vegetation Type: Aquatic Emergent, Douglas-fir, Grand fir, High elevation herbaceous and shrub opening, Low elevation grassland, Montane herbaceous opening, Montane Shrub, Parkland, Ponderosa pine, Shrub steppe, Subalpine fir, Urban-Agriculture, Wetland

Soils: Silt loam, Sandy loam, Loam, Fine sandy loam

Special Management Areas: Key Wildlife Range

Recreation: Hunting, mountain biking, hiking

Grazing: Number 2 Canyon

TES, ISSSP Species: None

Other land Ownerships: Private, State, BLM

Vectors of spread: Vehicle use, recreational activities, fire suppression, wildlife

Ongoing Treatments: Chemical

IWM Strategy: Monitor for new species and/or infestations and treat either manually or chemically; control existing infestations

Existing Sites and Treatment Objectives

| Code | Common Name | # of sites | Gross acres | Net acres | Site Types | Objectives |
|-------|------------------|------------|-------------|-----------|------------|-------------|
| CEDI3 | diffuse knapweed | 6 | 64.81 | 6.69 | 1,3,5,6 | Containment |