

From: paul iverson <mailto:psiverson@gmail.com>
To: FS-comments-rocky-mountain-san-juan-columbine
Subject: weminuche grazing
Date: Thursday, February 18, 2016 8:48:08 PM

I am opposed to all grazing on public lands!

Cows and sheep are not only the most destructive uses of our public lands but both beef and lamb have an enormous carbon footprint on the planet as a whole, and don't forget the absurd amount of water required; also, the invasive plant species brought into our formerly pristine wilderness by these sheep.

I know you will never completely ban grazing so I am writing to say that I support the most restrictions and the highest grazing permit fees possible.